ATTITUDES TOWARD AGING

Appraisal of everyday memory failures by middle-aged adults 63
Attitude toward old people: The impact of an intergenerational program 41
Fostering preschoolers' prosocial behaviors toward the elderly: The effect of an intergenerational program 21

CAREERS IN AGING

The association between attitudes and job satisfaction: A study of in-home care aides 209

COMMUNICATION

Important functions of the gerontological newsletter 315

CREATIVITY AND AGING

Self-perceived creativity in the later years: Case studies of older Nebraskans 379

EDUCATION AND AGING

A descriptive study of selected student characteristics: Twenty years of gerontological education 257
Adult age differences in the ability to read and remember metaphor 297
Computer-assisted instruction and the older-adult learner 229
Doctoral training in the psychology of adult development and aging: 1989–1990 survey results 247
Einstellung rigidity, set induction, and problem solving in the elderly 219
Junior high health teachers' knowledge and attitudes about aging and implementation of aging education 391
Life review among senior citizens as a product of drama 239
Satisfaction and strain among middle-aged women who return to school: Replication and extension of findings in a Canadian context 323

Self-esteem of the elderly and education 343
The association between education, experience, and performance on two knowledge of aging and elderly questionnaires 355
The great escape: The meaning of the great escape theme in the humanities and gerontology 55
Why older adults leave the university: A comparison of continuing and noncontinuing students 1

HEALTH EDUCATION

Creating a recreation integration process among older adults with mental retardation 275
Informed consent: Does position of information have an effect upon what elderly people in long-term care remember? 11
Knowledge, attitude, and psychosocial development of young and old adults 269
Misconceptions of health professionals regarding hearing loss in the elderly 33

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON EDUCATION AND AGING

Health education for the elderly in Hong Kong 507
International imperatives for gerontological education 477
Intergenerational proximity, propinquity, and social contact: An analysis of two Israeli university-based programs 465
Outreach counseling and educational activities in a district 487
Participation by older people in educational activities in New Zealand: Survey findings 409
Participation by older people in educational activities in New Zealand: Theoretical perspectives and policies 423
Participation with confidence: The development and evaluation of a leadership-training program for older adults 435
Social traits of Thai and American elderly 495
Toward understanding the participation of older adults in continuing education 451

WOMEN, EDUCATION, AND AGING

Curriculum guidelines and strategies on counseling older women for incorporation into gerontology and counseling coursework 157
Female survivors of the Holocaust: Heroines all 83

Forgotten students: Women's experience in a proprietary school 175
Great expectations: Hallmark of the midlife woman learner 167
Head start-late start: Retrieving education and identity 123
Mindfulness training: The effect of process and outcome instructions on the experience of control and the level of mindfulness among older women 97
Never too young to learn, never too old to teach: Women, writing, and aging 187
Older women in our society: America's silent, invisible majority 111
The adaptive misperception of age in older women: Sociocultural images and psychological mechanisms of control 141

VOLUNTEERING

Senior citizen volunteers in a university day-care center 363